Bobbie is a health care litigator with 30 years of experience defending physicians and hospitals in medical malpractice, wrongful death, and personal injury cases. Recognized as one of the leading medical malpractice defense attorneys in central Ohio, Bobbie represents major healthcare systems such as OhioHealth and several large professional liability insurance carriers representing various healthcare providers.

In her extensive courtroom experience, Bobbie has conducted numerous jury trials, argued before various appellate courts, and presented cases in Ohio at the local, state and federal level. Notably, Bobbie served as lead counsel in Comer v. Risko, where she successfully argued before the Supreme Court of Ohio.

Bobbie offers educational, advisory, and litigation support services to hospitals and healthcare providers. She has also represented healthcare providers during investigations by various professional boards. Bobbie is dedicated to providing robust legal representation while addressing the personal and professional needs of her clients and their legal challenges.
