Dinsmôre

Jay Khan

Associate
jay.khan@dinsmore.com

Cincinnati, OH
Tel: (513) 977-8295

Jay focuses his practice on government investigations, white collar defense, and False Claims Act matters, with a strong emphasis on litigation strategy.

Jay's legal career began as a law clerk for Judge Pierre H. Bergeron at the Ohio First District Court of Appeals, where he gained broad experience across a variety of case types, including criminal law, professional malpractice, custody disputes, and civil contract matters. This foundation helped shape his legal perspective, preparing him for work at a national law firm where he honed his skills in estate planning and developed a deep interest in litigation prior to joining Dinsmore.

Jay's diverse experiences inform his approach to each case. He is dedicated to understanding not just the legal complexities of his clients' challenges but also the emotional and personal factors that drive them. His goal is to provide thoughtful, strategic representation tailored to his clients' unique needs.

Services

- White Collar Defense

Education

- University of Cincinnati College of Law (J.D., magna cum laude)
    - o University of Cincinnati Law Review, Citations Editor
    - o Weaver Institute for Law and Psychiatry, Fellow
    - o Asian Pacific American Legal Student Association, Vice President
    - o Student Legal Education Committee
    - o Norbert Heinsheimer Essay Prize for Best Comment

- University of Denver (B.A., cum laude)
    - o Socio-Legal Studies and Psychology

Bar Admissions

- Ohio

- Kentucky

Languages

- Urdu

Publications

May 1, 2021
Tainted From Their Roots: The Fundamental Unfairness of Depriving Foreign Nationals of Counsel in Immigration Court